

POST-HARVEST / FALL ADVANCE APPLICATION – 2024/25

Please review these important details before beginning your application

Eligibility

-  Producers structured as corporations, cooperatives, and partnerships are eligible for a FarmCash Advance. The Producer must have produced the commodities, continuously own the commodities, and be responsible for the marketing of the commodities being applied for through the FarmCash program.
-  For cattle advances the Producer must own the livestock applied for on the advance and livestock must be born prior to applying.

Decision Appeals

-  A rejected advance application can be appealed by the producer. An appeals committee at FarmCash will examine the justifications and supporting documentation submitted by the applicant for reconsideration. For further information, send an email to info@farmcashadvance.com.

Application Fee

-  A non-refundable administration fee of $250 will be deducted from each advance issued to the producer. This fee is payable to the administrator for the purpose of processing the application.

Advance Limits

-  Producers can apply for a FarmCash Advance of up to $1,000,000. The first $250,000 is interest free subject to terms and conditions. The interest free provision and maximum advance is cumulative over all APP Administrators.
-  The maximum cumulative advance that can be issued to a Producer, including current outstanding advances (2022 and 2023) and eligible advances for 2024, can at no time exceed $1,000,000.

Security

-  Grains, oilseeds and pulse post-harvest advances are secured by the crop in storage.
-  Livestock producers must be enrolled in 2024 AgriStability or provide a valid Livestock Insurance Program (LPI) contract to be eligible for an advance.
-  Honey post-harvest advances are secured by the honey in storage.

Interest Charges

-  Interest bearing advances are subject to interest rate at TD Prime Rate less 0.5% (calculated daily), which is calculated and applied to accounts on at least a monthly basis.

Inspection Verification

-  A field and/or inventory inspection may need to be conducted to ensure adherence to the Repayment Agreement. The producer is responsible for covering the cost of the inspection, payable to the administrator.
-  Refusal of an inspection will result in an immediate default.
-  Every program year, Alberta Grains conducts inspections on randomly selected recipients of Advances to verify compliance with AMPA .
-  Additional criteria may be used in determining the inspection sample group, including: a) insufficient documentation of sale; b) advances repaid the last month before the program deadline; c) producers who had one or more defaults during the past three APP program years; and d) advances that FarmCash deems high risk.
-  If upon inspection a producer is found to have an inventory shortage, the Producer will have 30 calendar days to repay the short amount or be declared in default.
-  If your commodity is stored jointly with another producer, a clear breakdown by producer shall be provided at the time of inspection.

Default

-  Failure to comply with the Repayment Agreement, including, but not limited to full repayment by the end of the Production Period, will result in the Producer’s account being declared in default.
-  Upon default:
 1. An upfront default fee of 3% of the outstanding balance will be charged;
 2. The interest free benefit must be repaid;
 3. Default interest is charged at the TD Prime Rate plus 1% on the outstanding balance from the date the advance was issued to the date of default;
 4. Default interest is charged at the TD Prime Rate plus 3% on the outstanding balance from the date of default until repaid in full

Repayment

-  Repayments are applied as follows:
 1. Interest free principal portion of advance (if applicable);

3.3. Repayment of the Advance – General

- 3.3.1. This section applies to Field Crop and Honey Advances and Livestock Advances, as referenced respectively in 3.1 and 3.2 above. In addition to those mandatory payments and requirements under the paragraphs of 3.1.1 and 3.2.1 above, the Producer may choose to repay the Advance:

If the Producer chooses to repay an amount in excess of such amounts without proof of sale of the Agricultural Product, the Producer will be charged an interest penalty at the rate of TD Prime on the excess amount from the date the Advance was issued to the date of the repayment, and the Producer agrees to repay all interest related to repayments without proof of sale by the end of the applicable Production Period. Failure to repay such amounts will result in the account being placed in Default.
 - By assigning to the Administrator amounts payable under a listed BRM Program or by paying directly to the Administrator any amount received by the Producer under an eligible BRM Program before the end of the applicable Production Period.
 - By paying directly to the Administrator any amount received by the Producer, not exceeding the proceeds evidenced by proof of sale, or disposal, where applicable.

If a Producer, that is an individual, dies or is declared legally incapable of making decisions, no penalty for failing to provide proof of sale for an Agricultural Product will be imposed under the Repayment Agreement if repayment is made on behalf of that Producer.

4.0 Security Interests

- 4.1. The Producer agrees to grant a security interest in the Producer's Agricultural Product, and on any subsequent Agricultural Products of the same nature produced by the Producer, as collateral in the amount of the Eligible Advance until the full repayment of the Producer's liability under Sections 22 and 23 of the AMPA. The Producer further agrees that the Administrator's interest shall rank prior to the interest of any other creditor or security holder and confirms that the Producer has obtained signed priority agreements from all entities who have or may be entitled to have an interest in the Agricultural Product(s) ranking ahead of the Administrator including those listed in Part 1 of this application or otherwise identified through lien search, or alternatively, has provided express consent to the Administrator in pages (14-15) of the Repayment Agreement to enter into priority agreements with input suppliers, creditors or security holders on behalf of the Producer. - 4.3. Should the Producer suffer a loss prior to the reseeding deadlines in the province of operation, the Producer agrees to reseed in order to ensure that they continue to qualify for a full production insurance indemnity should additional losses be suffered; otherwise, the Producer will repay any unsecured amount of the Advance within thirty (30) calendar days of the reseeding deadline, failing this the Producer will be declared in Default.
- 4.4. For a Continuous Flow Advance, the level of inventory on which the Advance was calculated must be the minimum inventory maintained throughout the Advance Cycle. The Producer agrees to provide continuous LPI coverage at two (2) times the value of the APP Advance.
- 4.5. The Producer agrees to notify the Administrator of their intention to renew their LPI contract ten (10) calendar days prior to the expiration of the LPI contract used to secure this APP Advance. - 4.7. With the exception of addressing an overpayment, the Agricultural Product(s) used to secure an advance cannot be changed following receipt by the Administrator of the BRM Program Coverage Report, or of other means of confirmation of Production Units, and payment to the Producer of either the second installment or 100 percent of the Maximum Eligible Advance.
